MAYANK
CHATURVEDI

Mayank Chaturvedi is a Global Development Scientist Director in Clinical Trial Excellence and Delivery at AstraZeneca. By training, he is a pharmacist, having completed his pharmacy education in India. He holds a Ph.D. in Neurobiology from the Nencki Institute, Polish Academy of Sciences, where he was nominated for Poland's Prime Minister's Prize for Best Doctoral Dissertation. Mayank completed postdoctoral research at the University of Oxford. With over 10 years of academic research experience and 7 years in the pharmaceutical industry, he has worked in various functions of clinical trials.

In his upcoming talk at the our Institute, Mayank will share his journey from academic research to the pharmaceutical industry, discussing the challenges he faced, how he overcame them, and his experiences working in Academia vs Industry. He is also open to answering any questions you might have about transitioning your career from academia to industry.
