ANDREA LIPINSKA

Andrea Lipińska is Vice-Dean of the Intercollegiate Faculty of Biotechnology UG & MUG and a virologist at the Laboratory of Virus Molecular Biology. She holds a PhD in biochemistry and a D.Sc. in biotechnology. Her research focuses on virus–host interactions, with particular emphasis on viral immune evasion of antigen presentation. Her group investigates the mechanisms by which herpesvirus and coronavirus proteins modulate immune responses and cellular pathways such as protein degradation and autophagy. She is also a member of the Polish Virology Society Board.
