KLAUDIA TAJTHI &
MAGDALENA JAWORSKA

Klaudia & Magda are representatives of the Experiment Science Center in Gdynia. Klaudia is a physicist and science popularizer. She is involved in creating and conducting workshops, science shows and lectures but also large-scale science events, such as Researchers' Night or science festivals. Magda is a PR specialist at the Centre where she is focused on promoting science, organizing large-scale events, and fostering public interest. Beyond that she is involved with the European Network of Youth Cancer Survivors. She is passionate about advocating for the needs of different social groups within cancer care.
